DECEMBER 2016

ENGAGING YOUNG PROFESSIONALS FROM THE HELENA AREA THROUGH PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT, NETWORKING, & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Meet CYP Steering Committee Members

KELSEY FANDRY

My Name is Kelsey Fandry and I moved to Helena in 2008 after graduating from Washington State University. I received my Bachelors Degree in Hospitality Business Management and started working in the hotel industry in Helena. After that I moved to Rocky Mountain Credit Union where I am now the Branch Manager. My husband Ben and I have been married for 6 years and have twin boys that are 1 year old. I love spending all my spare time with them and watching my favorite football team, the Seahawks, on Sundays.

RILEY RELFE

Over the last ten years Riley Relfe has worked in the non-profit sector as a staff member or volunteer with the following organizations: Big Brothers Big Sisters, Boys & Girls Club of America, as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), the Civil Air Patrol, Gods Love, Montana Legal Services, Helena Food Share, and more. She moved to Montana in 2010 as an AmeriCorps member and loves to support and help non-profits however she can. She currently works as the Non-profit Outreach & Recruitment Coordinator at A2Z Staffing Solutions.

MARCUS STRANGE

My name is Marcus and I am originally from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. I graduated from Brigham Young University with a BA in Political Science. I currently work for the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education. I volunteer with the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Montana Wildlife Association, Helena Hunters and Anglers, and my church's youth group, in addition to HCYPs. In my free time, I enjoy hunting, archery, camping, basketball, CrossFit, photography, and filmmaking. I'm a fan of nachos, pop tarts, podcasts, John Wayne, and America.

BEN FANDRY

My name is Ben Fandry. I was born and raised in Helena, MT. After attending Andrews University in Michigan I started my career in the field of Durable Medical Equipment for a private dealer in Helena. After 5 years, I moved into another great Local business as a Salesman for Montana Broom and Brush. I have been with Montana Broom and Brush for almost 7 years. I am also the lead singer for a classic rock and alternative band in Helena called Ten years gone. I have been playing live music for almost ten years. My wife Kelsey and I have been married for 6 years and are proud parents of our twin boys Carson and Evan. In my free time I enjoy playing guitar, riding motorcycles, target shooting, board games, and traveling with my family.

Stay Tuned!
