Young Professionals

The Helena Area Chamber of Commerce's Young Professionals provides events designed to engage young people (21-45 yrs old) of area firms and help them become more competitive in the business arena. The program helps young professionals establish a web of business contacts through networking and to grow both personally and professionally through a variety of program topics and venues.

Mission:

To engage young professionals from the Helena Area through professional development, networking, and civic participation/involvement.

Costs:

The Chamber has secured sponsorships to help cover the costs of the inaugural events and for defraying costs of future events. Membership fees will also go toward event costs to make them more affordable, pay speaker costs, and other program costs.

Membership Fee: $50.00 per person/year, $75.00 per couple/year
